LADIES' LIST.

THE offer to the Ladies has been partially defeated, owing to the general stringency. Those who informed us, early in the fall, of their determination to compete for the prizes offered, in but few instances were able to accomplish anything—much to their own disappointment and to the loss of the ASSOCIATION. Let us hope another year will prove more auspicious for the co-operation of our female friends.

Persons subscribing for the new Engraving are entitled to the ART JOURNAL for one year. As the volumes commence with the December Number, the subscriber must specify whether the current volume (of which back numbers will be supplied) is wanted, or if their names shall be entered for the coming (third) volume.

Address all communications to the New-York office—directing plainly, giving the town, and always the name of the State. In a great number of instances errors or delays have occurred because of the subscriber neglecting to give the State, as well as the town, address. How shall our clerks know what “Washington,” “Franklin,” “Jackson,” &c., &c., is meant, if the State is not named?

Those subscribers who have not been served with the December JOURNAL, (No. I. vol. II.,) and are entitled to it, will have to specialy order it, as this present Number (March and June) is the first which goes upon the mailing books.

Books for subscriptions are now open, for the Fifth year. Remember, “first come, first served.” Those who desire the earliest impressions of the new Annual Engraving will send along their names and subscriptions at once. The engraving will be one fully and unequivocally worth ten dollars, yet the subscription price for Engraving and ART JOURNAL, one year, will remain at three dollars—more for the money than was ever before offered in this or any other country. Send along your early subscriptions!

Does not the present Number of the JOURNAL present a rich table of contents? We doubt if any publication in the world furnishes matter more calculated for interest and instruction. We feel some pride in offering such a gratuity to our members.

The Paintings, Statuary, and Bronzes Awarded to subscribers have been going forward to their destination as rapidly as possible. They are in the hands of the boxers, and daily go off in large numbers. They are carefully packed, so as to carry any distance without injury. If the successful member has any special order for his prize, it should be sent in immediately; if the work has not already gone forward, the order sent will be attended to. Otherwise the consignment will be directed to the place of address on the ASSOCIATION's books.
